Dear Gerry, gnocchi

Thanks for taking the time for an account of the Vietnamese wedding.

I found it interesting and it reminded me of the traditional wedding of my heritage which I remember and enjoy from my youth.

If we got to Hana's tomorrow I'll ask Everett how it feels to be a TV star.

Dave gave his Freedom Road to a black student with the stipulation he give it to another. Dave got a good reaction.

If I did not send you Fast's Being Red, Hamilton is still remaindering it.

It has taken a little time to respond to what I heard from Doubleday. It and what I said in response will speak for themselves.

As you may have heard me say, I'm a devil who loves scripture.

Our bes to you all,

Harold
